AMUSEMENTS

CHARLES CHAPLIN AND WILL ROGERS TODAY

Here is a bill that is worth talking about. Charlie Chaplin, in his fourth million dollar production, "A Day's Pleasure," and Will Rogers, the New York Winter Garden star, in "The Strange Boarder."

It is said of this Chaplin comedy, that it is not up to the standard of some of his previous productions, such as "Dog's Life" or "Shoulder Arms," but there are a number of laughs in it, and if we did not have an opportunity of seeing it, we would feel as though we had missed something as Charlie is a wonderful favorite the world over.

Heart interest, thrills, dramatic moments and pretty touches of comedy are the ingredients which compose "The Strange Boarder." Mr. Rogers' latest picture, and which when summed up as a whole bill surely entertain and those who witness this production.

Monday the most lavish production of the year, "Male & Female"—a super production under the finished direction of Cecil B. De Mille.
